

AAUW Covington-Mandeville Branch Membership Application (from the Web)

Covington Mandeville Branch of AAUW was established in 1964. We are located in Southeast Louisiana on the northshore of Lake Pontchartrain with most members living in the communities of St. Tammany, Tangipahoa, and Washington Parishes.

What is AAUW?

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) is the largest and oldest national organization dedicated to the advancement of women and education. The AAUW Educational Foundation is the largest source of graduate education for women and the only international source of such funding.

Founded in 1881 by 17 alumnae of eight colleges, AAUW was envisioned as a network dedicated to opening the doors of higher education to women. The mission of AAUW is to promote equity for women, education and self-development over the life span, and positive societal change. We act on the local, state, national, and international levels. Members of AAUW include more than 120,000 men and women in 13,000 communities in the United States and Puerto Rico.

Who can join AAUW?

Nationally, Full membership in AAUW is open to anyone who has earned an Associate degree (or equivalent), a Baccalaureate degree, or any higher degree from an accredited college or university. An equivalent Associate degree would include Nursing degrees and Associate degrees awarded by Business schools or Technical colleges. In addition, Student Affiliate membership is available for students enrolled in their first degree program at an accredited college or university.

In principle and practice, we value and work toward a diverse membership. This organization does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, creed, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or class.

Membership is not by invitation, but rather by desire to join an organization that offers programs that foster personal growth by enhancing skills and the ability to make significant contributions to society.
